It's just plain common sense to buy quality. In the highly specialized skill of making the best better, you have to buy today, better than you bought or bred yesterday.

Here's a brand new sale with breeding that is different, chosen with care and blended with skill. Here are modern Shorthorns, the peak of type and quality, produced from the best that America and Scotland could supply. Come and see what we have in store for you.

Cyrus Eaton, owner of Acadia Farms, surveys with satisfaction a group of contented cows and calves in a corner of one of his eleven well shaded blue grass pastures.

A group of matrons, all with calves at foot, in one of the eleven luxuriant pastures, that make life a paradise for the Acadia Farms herd, now numbering more than 125 Shorthorns.

A Cordial Invitation

Inviting you to attend the first Annual Acadia-Red Gate Sale is a great pleasure to which we have long looked forward.

When we sent James Napier to Scotland early in 1950, our one injunction to him was to select the best two bulls to be found for service in both herds. Now we want you to come and see Imp. Calrossie Sportsman and Imp. Calrossie Rosewood Fortress, and to judge them and their calves for yourselves. Our sale offering centers around their get and their service.

All lovers of the Shorthorn breed will find a warm welcome awaiting them at Acadia Farms on Saturday, May 19. We shall be happy if you will honor us with your presence, and we hope you will arrive as early as possible so that you will have plenty of time to study the cattle before the sale begins at 12:30 P. M. Eastern Standard Time.

Cows and heifer calves heading for a creep, with Betty Royon, vice president of Acadia Farms, at their heels.

Acadia Farms . . .

As cows head for shade their calves beat them to the creep at Acadia Farms.

Acadia Farms is the 850-acre property of industrialist Cyrus Eaton at Northfield, Ohio, midway between the great cities of Cleveland and Akron. Mr. Eaton lives at Acadia the year around, and devotes part of every day to farming activities despite the myriad demands of his widespread industrial interests.

Mr. Eaton is also the owner of the 3000-acre Deep Cove Farms at Upper Blandford, Nova Scotia, Canada. The Acadia Shorthorn herd numbers more than 125 head, while a smaller herd of approximately 50 head is maintained at Deep Cove.

Acadia Farms is made up of ten farmsteads. Its 250 acres of blue grass pastureland are divided into 11 pastures, each well-shaded and amply supplied with clear running water from spring-fed brooks. Three hundred and fifty acres of cropland are under cultivation at Acadia, and the balance of the property is in timberland, much of it virgin forest.

Assisting Mr. Eaton in the operation of both Acadia and Deep Cove are James Napier, Scottish-born beef cattle expert who is President of the two Farms, and Betty Royon, Vice President. Miss Royon is a Director of the Ohio Shorthorn Breeders' Association. Fred Rose is Herdsman at Acadia, while Thomas Zinck is Manager of Deep Cove Farms and his son, Harvey Zinck, is Deep Cove Herdsman.

Red Gate Farms . . .

Red Gate Farms is the property of W. H. Kilcawley, an official of the Standard Slag Co. Located approximately 2½ miles southwest of Canfield, Ohio, it is one of the cleanest, most modern and most practical farming and livestock establishments in Ohio. The owner lives on the farm and is vitally interested in its operation. Assisting him as manager of this enterprise is the very capable Mr. M. A. Sterrett.

The herd at Red Gate was founded on the best females that money could buy and contains daughters of the breed's most noted sires. Further improvement is being made through the use of good imported sires.

Adjacent to Red Gate is the farm owned by the Standard Slag Co. where a breeding herd of 80 high grade Shorthorn females from the famous commercial herd owned by Henry Brown, Folsom, New Mexico, is maintained. Through the matings of these choice females with top Shorthorn bulls, it is the ambition of the owners to produce winning club calves for the boys and girls of Ohio.

A pair of good females recently added to the Red Gate herd—

Elcona Baroness, grand champion female, 1950 Indiana State Fair, reserve grand at the 1950 National. Purchased at $2100 in the 1950 Sims-Hanson sale. Sired by Edellyn Royal Leader 22nd.

Elcona Crimson May, a daughter of Edellyn Royal Leader 22nd. Purchased at $1125 in the 1950 Sims-Hanson sale with heifer calf by Sunset Bounce 14th, son of Imported Craggleton Bounce.

Quick Dividends for the Buyers

THIS sale offering is different from the rest. Fully aware that today's buyers are interested primarily in the safety of their investments, the entire offering has been selected with an eye toward quick dividends for the purchasers.

Following the purchase of the two outstanding bulls Calrossie Sportsman and Calrossie Rosewood Fortress at the 1950 Perth Sale in Scotland, Cyrus S. Eaton and W. H. Kilcawley, owners respectively of Acadia Farms and Red Gate Farms, instructed the members of their organizations to get 40 good females safely settled to the service of these bulls and then make them available to the public through an auction sale. In making such a move, it is obvious that these owners are more interested in the general improvement of the breed than in their own welfare because the normal and most profitable procedure would be to hold all of the first crop of calves for herd replacements.

Those who study this catalog cannot fail to be impressed with the large number of royally bred females that will have calves at foot or that will calve very soon after sale day. Add to this the fact that ten exceptionally good bulls are listed and you are certain to conclude that this sale will be a wonderful place to buy.

The Acadia and Red Gate herds were established on a basis of utmost permanency and the foundation animals were selected by experts from the strongest sources available in Scotland, the United States and Canada. I congratulate the owners and management on making such a strong sale offering available.

Imp Calrossie Sportsman was selected personally in Scotland by James Napier, President of Acadia Farms, whose ability and judgment are respected wherever Shorthorn cattle are known. Although he serves as chief stock bull and makes his principal headquarters at Acadia Farms, an interest in Calrossie Sportsman is owned by Red Gate Farms and his service will be interchangeable with that of Imp. Calrossie Rosewood Fortress, also selected in Scotland by Jim Napier.

Imp. Calrossie Sportsman was purchased at a cost of 5,000 guineas ($16,500) after winning second in class to the reserve supreme champion and high selling bull at the 1950 Perth, Scotland, Show and Sale. He has developed beautifully since his arrival at Acadia and we will be very proud to display the first calves by this noted son of Millhills Champion on sale day. We feel very sure that those who inspect them will be eager to own the females in this sale that have his calves at foot or that are heavy in calf to him.

When James Napier went to the 1950 Perth Show and Sale in Scotland he carried two orders, one for a bull to serve as chief stock bull at Acadia and the other for a bull to serve as chief stock bull at Red Gate, both bulls to be owned jointly with service interchangeable. Calrossie Rosewood Fortress was the bull selected for service at Red Gate, after he had won the high award of reserve senior championship.

Sired by Calrossie Cupbearer by Kirkton Baronet and out of a daughter of Glastullich Fortress by Lawton President Roosevelt, this bull brings to Red Gate the most prepotent blood of Scotland. After you have inspected his calves you will understand why we were willing to pay 3,000 guineas ($9,900) to secure him. Most of the females in the Red Gate consignment will carry his valuable service.

Imp. Chapelon Banker—A dark roan imported bull that stood third in a strong class at Perth, Scotland, in 1950, and was first in class at the 1950 Ohio State Fair right after he arrived from Scotland. Smooth, sappy, with a great head, deep flank, level top and bottom, he is good enough to be used in any herd in the country. He's by Calrossie Contribution, a son of the great Kirkton Baronet, and is out of what Jim Biggar called a "very typy, top-quality cow," whose sire was senior champion at Perth. We have been using Imp. Chapelon Banker and should have his first calves by sale day.

Corrimony Acadian—A red, imported-in-dam bull, by Corrimony Forester that sold to the Argentine for 1400 guineas. A show-winner in Scotland before we bought her, his dam is out of the same cow as Imp. Corrimony Emperor, the sire that is making an impressive record in the Helfred herd in Iowa. Short-legged smooth and good-headed, Corrimony Acadian is a real herd-sire prospect.

Catalog . . .*

With only seven head in their exhibit, Acadia Farms made a creditable showing at the Ohio State Fair last year. Chapelton Banker, the son of Calrossie Contribution that will sell in this sale, won first prize in the junior yearling class, an award that is significant in view of the fact that he was exhibited almost immediately following his arrival from Scotland and without special fitting. Acadia also won first prize in the senior heifer calf class.

Headed by Chapelton Banker, the ten bulls in this sale are an exceptionally strong group, each worthy of a position at the head of a strong herd.

A group of imported and home-bred heifers and calves pastured near the largest of Acadia Farms' four capacious barns. All of the animals pictured are by such illustrious sires as Pittodrie Upright, Beaufort Boludo, Calrossie Good News, Ballechin Charity Chief, Pittodrie Landmark and Bapton Commando.
